

Basic Communication Board

For Non-Verbal & Minimally Verbal Children

How to Use

Print and laminate this board. Teach your child to point to pictures to communicate. Accept ANY pointing as communication. Celebrate every attempt!

I WANT...	I FEEL...	I NEED...	YES / NO
Food [Bowl]	Happy [Smile]	Toilet [WC]	YES [Thumbs Up]
Water [Cup]	Sad [Frown]	Help [Hands]	NO [Thumbs Down]
Play [Ball]	Angry [Face]	Rest [Bed]	MORE [+]
Hug [Arms]	Scared [Eyes]	Pain [Body]	STOP [Hand]
Music [Note]	Tired [Zzz]	Outside [Tree]	WAIT [Clock]

Tips for Using Communication Boards

- ✓ Start with 4-6 pictures your child is most motivated by
- ✓ Always model pointing yourself before expecting your child to point
- ✓ Make it available at ALL times — not just during therapy
- ✓ Take photos of YOUR child's favourite things for personalised boards
- ✓ Pair the board with speech — say the word when pointing to the picture
- ✓ Never take away the board as punishment — it is their voice!

Replace [symbols] with real photographs or use apps like LetMeTalk, Cboard, or Snap Core First for digital versions.